Grabbing the facemask used to be a term we heard only while watching football. Today, “grab your mask” takes on an entirely different meaning. In the photo, county golfers Brady Leathley of Wilmington, Brian Miller of Blanchester, Dakota Gasaway of Clinton-Massie and Nathan Ellis of East Clinton are “masked up” and ready to tee off on this virus.

After a canceled spring sports season, there was concern about high school sports in the fall.

But as the calendar turned from July to August, the OHSAA and state government officials gave the go-ahead for the 2020 Fall Sports Season to begin.

As this is written, there remains a question about football and soccer, the “contact” sports for this season. It appears, though, some kind of schedule will be worked out.

Players in all sports are wearing masks to and from the practice field.

Many are getting tested in various ways before they are permitted to practice each day. Some are having to answer questions regarding their health, COVID-19 related symptoms being the focus.

Some are having their temperatures checked on a daily basis. Too high and they have to go back home.

Coaches are becoming quasi-doctors, if you will.

Athletic trainers have changed the way they do things. Preventative measures used in the past are no longer part of their routine, with the hopes of keeping contact with an athlete at a minimum.

The athletes are following their instructions, as much as most teen-agers follow instructions. Contact with teammates is frowned upon, even the most basic of athletic rituals like a “high-five” is discouraged.

As the season unfolds and the heat of the day turns to the crisp fall nights, most of this will become routine and second-nature. At some point, we may even ask “Why don’t we just keep doing things this way?”

Then again, maybe not.

Either way, let’s take our own precautions if we are able to go watch those young people compete in their respective sports. Wear a mask. Keep your distance. And just pray we get through a full season, so the competitive spirit can win out over this pandemic.

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL

East Clinton

In his second season as East Clinton head football coach, Steven Olds likes what he sees.

“Our numbers will be closer to 40 this season, which is big for us,” he said. “I also love the commitment this group of guys has made to getting better. I think consistently having around 30 guys a day in the weightroom is a step in the right direction. It’s not where we want to be, but we feel like we are making progress.”

East Clinton was 4-6 in Olds’ first season, including a 2-3 mark in the SBAAC National Division. A 4-4 season was bookended by losses to playoff teams Clinton-Massie in the opener and Blanchester in the finale.

Olds will be assisted this season by Brian Floyd (defensive coordinator), Nick Anderson (receiver, defensive back coach), Adam Boysel (special teams, lines), Daniel Day (running backs and linebackers). Middle school coaches are DJ Luttrell and Mason Huff.

EC returns 13 letterwinners, 10 of which started in 2019. Olds said there are eight starters on offense and seven starters on defense returning.

The top returning player is Branson Smith, a two-time first team All-SBAAC National Division player who earned second team All-Southwest District honors. His brother Jared Smith returns at quarterback. Other top returning players are Phillips Davis, Chris Norman, Isaiah Conger and Kaleb Kingery.

Olds said Brandon Smith has become a better teammate and leader for EC. Runyon is the leader of the secondary and team because of how he carries himself. “He doesn’t miss offseason workouts,” the coach said.

Jaden Singleton has taken on more of a leadership role during the offseason and has “done a great job of encouraging our younger guys and showing them the right way to do things,” said Olds. Norman has taken leadership of the offensive line.

Newcomers of note include Brandon Zimmerman, Trenton Garen and Denver Day. Zimmerman missed 2019 because of injury. Garen, a basketball player at ECHS, is out for the first time. Day is a freshman.

The Astros will need to fill several key spots left by the graduation of Todd Wedding, Patrick Dotson and Mason Huff. Wedding and Dotson were first team All-SBAAC players while Huff was a second teamer.

To contend, East Clinton must stay healthy, focused and hungry, Olds said.

On the field, Olds said, “We need to cut down on the silly penalties. I think some of that is from being aggressive, which I admit I love about our boys, but we have to do a better job of not giving the opponent extra possessions. We need to focus more in practice so that we can achieve and celebrate positive results on Friday night.

“We are excited to see what this group could do. We are just hoping, like I’m sure everybody else is, that we get to play this year.”

Blanchester

Jon Mulvihill said the 2020 Blanchester High School football team had a solid group of returning players from a playoff team in 2019.

But then the additions of 2018 players Brody Rice and Brayden Sipple — neither of whom did not play in 2019 — make things more interesting for the SBAAC National Division champions.

“We are excited about their return,” said Mulvihill, who will be assisted by John Lovin, Brandon Scott and Kelly Penquite at the varsity level and Dan Peters at the middle school.

In addition to Sipple and Rice, newcomers to the squad, Mulvihill said, are Trenton Czaika, Blake Richard and Logan Heitzman.

They’ll join returnees Colt Conover, Gage Huston, Jackson Bray, Chasen Allison, Brady Phillips and Adam Frump to make BHS the odds-on favorite in the National Division.

Blanchester was a playoff qualifier last season and finished 6-5, but were 5-0 against National Division teams. Gone from that team are James Peters, Kadin Berwanger, Tanner Creager, Christian Stubbs, Carter Abbott and Jasper Damewood.

In all 12 letterwinners and seven starters return for Mulvihill who is in his second season as varsity head coach.

Conover and Huston are the clear-cut leaders for the Wildcats, the coach added.

Mulvihill said he likes the heart of this team but they’ll need to improve their physical conditioning to reach their potential.

But if there is a 2020 season, Mulvihill said his squad will be in the thick of the National Division race.

“Regardless of what happens with the season, I am proud of the work this group has already put in,” Mulvihill said.
HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL

Clinton-Massie

A first-round ouster from the playoffs has Clinton-Massie football humble and hungry in 2020. They’ll get a huge test right away as they face perennial powerhouse Kettering Alter in what coach Dan McSurley said was the biggest (week one) game in the state on Aug. 28.

In his 24th season at CM, McSurley is 227-62 with the Falcons.

He will be assisted this season by Scott Rolf, Doug Howard, Jeskee Zantene, Barry Wulf, Jordan Phipps and AJ Avery at the high school and by Jeremy Lamb, Dom Smith and Fred Carmack at the middle school.

There are 15 returning letterwinners for Massie but only four returning starters on defense. There are seven returning starters on offense.

Gone from last year’s 9-2 squad are SBAAC player of the year Brendan Lamb as well first-teamers Braxton Green, Tate Olberding, Garrett Trampler and Davis Wulf and second-teamers Noah Corbett, Robby Frederick and Devon Noble.

Trevor McGuiness and Brody Muterspaw are the top returning players, McSurley said. Other key returnees include Carson Vanhoose, Colton Trampler, Carter Frank and Cayden Clutter.

Also returning will be Kody Zantene, who was expected to the quarterback last season but was injured in the pre-season and played just five games.

Despite just 11 returning starters, McSurley said he likes the experience of this team. He also believes overall team speed is a plus for the Falcons in 2020.

The secondary must improve but if the Falcons remain healthy and learn humility they will be right back at the top of the SBAAC American Division standings.

Wilmington

Wilmington didn’t have the season (3-7) in the W-L column head coach Scott Killen expected in 2019.

Several factors played in to that but the positive end result is that a lot of young players saw time on Friday night and are now ready to compete for the top spot in the SBAAC American Division.

“The past couple years we have had to play young players for various reasons especially last year,” Killen said. “We are older, bigger, stronger and faster than we have been in the past couple of years. We are looking forward to competing on Friday nights and seeing our growth.”

Wilmington returns 19 letterwinners, 18 of which were starters. Jeff Valentine leads the way after earning first-team All-SBAAC honors.

Other returning players are Carter Huffman, Kendall France, Brock Rappach, Bradye Sturgill, TJ Killen, Elijah Rockhold, Andrew Stewart, Brett Brooks, Isaiah Rigling and Josh Snell.

“This senior class has done a great job of stepping up and leading the team,” said Killen. “I love the way we have attacked the offseason workouts and how hard we practice.”

Killen will be assisted by Josh Wulff, Jeremy Andrews, Jody Drake, JD McIntosh, Gary Massie, Ryan Stickey, Joe Gigandet, Kyle Davis, Austin Thompson, Travis Mellinger, Tim Stirr, Mike Current and Davey Allen.

Newcomers of note, according to Killen, are Remington Smith, Parker Henry, Tanner Killen, Thad Stickey and Jayden Tackett.

WHS must replace Chris Custis (first team All-SBAAC, first team All-Southwest District, first team All-Ohio) along with Conner Mitchell, Cam Coomer and Rory Bell.

Consistency and protecting the football will be two key areas for the Hurricane this season. Killen said improved depth at the skill positions also must take place for WHS to compete for the league title.
HIGH SCHOOL VOLLEYBALL

Clinton-Massie

There will be five holes to fill on the Clinton-Massie volleyball roster in 2020.

Gone from last year’s SBAAC American Division runnerup are Rylee Richard-son, Delany Miller, Carly Moritz, Hannah Doss and Noelle Phelps.

But any good program like CM volleyball has roster turnover and remains near the top.

This season will be no different.

“My seniors have stepped up and taken on that (leadership) role,” said veteran coach Stephanie Reveal, in her 15th season as varsity coach with a 177-96 record.

Reveal will be assisted by Stacey Conley at the varsity level, Emily Fisher with the junior varsity and Brittany Haines and Emily Miller at the middle school.

The Lady Falcons were 16-8 last season, 7-3 in the league. Five letterwinners and three starters return from that squad.

Cadin Reveal leads the way. She was first team All-SBAAC and second team All-District 15. Kennedy Thompson also returns following her honorable mention campaign in 2019.

If passing gets better — it’s always passing, Reveal said — and her squad “believes in one another and sets the tempo of the game,” a move up in the standings is not out of the question.

East Clinton

After a season away on maternity leave, Sarah Sodini is back to lead the East Clinton volleyball program.

EC was 13-6 last season with Samantha McGraw leading the way. The Lady Astros were 7-4 and third in the SBAAC National Division.

Sodini will be assisted by Bob Malone (junior varsity), Katie Rupp (freshmen), Mekenzie Seaman (eighth grade) and Sara Shaner (seventh grade).

There are seven letter-winners and four starters returning. Libby Evanshine leads the way as a returning first-team All-SBAAC player. Gracie Evanshine was honorable mention all-league.

Sodini said newcomers Kelsi Lilly, McKenzie Pence, Lauren Hadley, Lydia Kessler and Lanie Clark will have an impact on the program.

But EC will need to replace Myah Jones (first team All-SBAAC) and Emma Malone (second team All-SBAAC) from 2019.

Gracie Evanshine has stepped up and taken leadership of the team. “The younger girls look up to her and she takes them under her wing,” Sodini said. “She is always kind, loving, and patient, but is a beast on the volleyball court.”

Sodini said her team must improve its serve receive but can contend in the National Division if they give their best, believe they can win and work together.

“I am so glad to be back from maternity leave,” said Sodini. “These girls have worked so hard in the off season even with the COVID situation. We are being careful and cautious. We are hoping to have an amazing, fun season.”

HIGH SCHOOL VOLLEYBALL

Wilmington

Six seniors will lead the way as Wilmington High School volleyball looks to take the next step in Jenna Persinger's third year as head coach.

WHS was 9-14 overall and 3-7 in the SBAAC American Division.

“Our program has come a long way in the last couple of years, but we still need to fine tune our technical skills,” said Persinger. “Clean up some areas where we hurt ourselves with unforced errors.”

Persinger will be assisted by Jamie Bryant (varsity), Megan Aber (junior varsity) and Jasmine Tolbert and Morgan Wiles (middle school).

Blanchester

Blanchester finished fourth in the SBAAC National Division last season, posting a 5-7 record. The Ladycats were 8-16 overall.

Calli Baumann was first-team All-SBAAC last season as a junior.

Ally Davis was first team all-league and Holly Scott was given honorable mention. Both players graduated in the spring.

Jenna Weisflock is in her fifth year as the head coach. She will be assisted by Julie Mulvihill (junior varsity) and Shebie Rose (junior high).

There are nine letterwinners returning, four of whom were starters last year. In addition to Baumann, BHS has Taylor Combs, Madison Creager, Brooklyn Bockstiegel, MaKayla Lanham, Hailey Mulvihill, Summer Schutte, Ainsley Whitaker and Emma Falgner returning. Hope Blankenbeckler is a newcomer of note, Weisflock said.

Wilmington

McCord, Kathryn Hardin, Mariah Knowles and Logan Osborne

Top returning players are senior Harlie Bickett (two-time first team All-SBAAC), Caroline Diels (second team All-SBAAC), senior Emily Self (two-time honorable mention All-SBAAC), senior Chay Johns, senior Emily Butcher and senior Vanessa Addison.

Senior Maura Drake returns after taking a year off. Sydney McCord saw time at the end of 2019 and is expected to contribute more this season.

Persinger said Banesa Morales, Jena Rhods and Brynn Bryant round out the roster.

“We have a great group of six seniors who have stepped up to fill the shoes of last years’ group,” said Persinger. “I really like versatility of this team. We have girls who can play multiple positions and play them well, we just need to find the best lineup that allows the girls to mesh as one on the floor.”
HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS SOCCER

Blanchester

After two years as an assistant coach, Kristina White is now the varsity head coach for Blanchester girls soccer.

She takes over for long-time coach Kurt Ballinger.

Blanchester 2-12 in 2-19. There are 10 letterwinners and seven returning starters from that young team.

The BHS roster consists of seniors Becca Kratzer, Lana Roy and Alyssa Griffith; juniors Sam Naylor, Lacie Tedrick, Emma Winemiller, Zoei Stanforth; sophomores Rylan Coyle, Destiny Blankenbeckler, Kyra Renick, Olivia Potts, Josie Wilson, Jazzalynn Miller, Tessa Mettler, Aubrey Myers; and freshmen Kaylee Coyle and Macey Waldron.

Brianna Haun graduated.

“From the field, she was a fantastic leader on and off the field for her teammates,” White said.

Ruby Day and Kelsey Naylor also graduated and were strong leaders for the Ladycats, White said.

White said Waldron and Kaylee Coyle will bring speed to the lineup in their first varsity season.

Tedrick and Roy have stepped into leadership roles for BHS. While said Tedrick is passionate about soccer while Roy is a charismatic person who uplifts the team every day.

“This team gets along very well with one another and has started off the year on a positive note,” said White. “Every morning they show up ready to put their best foot forward and work harder than the previous day.

“This team simply needs experience. The more they play, the better they become. I am excited to watch them grow together over the next few seasons.”

Wilmington

The Wilmington High School girls soccer program looks to rebound after a 1-14-2 season in 2019.

WHS was winless in the SBAAC American Division. There are nine letterwinners but only four starters returning. Paige Bryant is a fourth-year player and one of the top defenders on the squad. A captain as a junior, Bryant will be the team leader.

Karlie Morgan was a stalwart in goal for WHS and graduated. Anna Borton was the offensive leader and also graduated.

Petra Bray, Olivia Massie, Haley Schroeder, Sophie Burt, Marissa Merriman and Autumn Housh also graduated.

Haley Ibaugh is in her second year as head coach. She will be assisted by Reece Ibaugh, Bobby Oetzel and Kenny Ferrence.

Taliah Billingsley is a newcomer to note, Ibaugh said.

“Our players are incredibly driven, uplifting and dedicated,” Ibaugh said. “They constantly push and motivate each other to do better.”
HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS SOCCER

Clinton-Massie

The Clinton-Massie girls soccer team finished 5-4-1 in the SBAAC National Division, good enough for fourth-place overall. The Lady Falcons were 6-8-1 in all matches. Gone from that team is Sadie Carruthers, who graduated after earning first team all-league honors. Brenna Eades was given honorable mention and has graduated. Victoria Sivert and Savannah Henderson also graduated. Nora Voisey was a junior last season and was first-team All-SBAAC. According to the league website, Voisey had nine goals and seven assists in nine games.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS SOCCER

Benny Spirk takes over the Blanchester High School boys soccer program.

A Wilmington High School soccer standout and a four-year starter at Wilmington College, Spirk will bring a deep soccer background to the BHS program.

The Wildcats were 5-9-2 overall in 2019 and 3-5-2 against National Division foes. Among the players who graduated from that team Cameron Gibson, Tanner Kellerman and Cameron Skidmore.

There are seven returning letterwinners and five returning starters, including Carter Stevens, who earned first-team All-SBAAC National Division honors in 2019. Stevens had 14 goals last season and 32 for his three-year career.

Spirk said Stevens, Colton Wilson, Aaron Abirached, Gavin Colebank, Taylor Cochran and Jacob Haun have “shown great leadership by keeping everyone accountable and giving it 100 percent in everything they do.”

Spirk his first-year coaching group is hungry to learn and motivated to succeed but will need to improve game awareness. The team can contend if the play hard and smart, Spirk said.

“They are a hardworking group of guys that I believe will do great things this year,” Spirk said.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS SOCCER

Clinton-Massie

Despite a late-season loss to Goshen, the Clinton-Massie boys soccer team won the SBAAC American Division championship.

The Falcons were 7-2-1 in the league while Goshen won six and tied two and Wilmington won six and tied one.

Trevor McGuiness was a junior last season and had 23 goals for the Falcons, according to the SBAAC website.

Rafael Bellucci Mann was the American Division player of the year. Julio Madrigal was the coach of the year.

McGuiness, Sam Binau and MP Pipolo were first team all-league players last season.

Joe Hammonds was a second teamer and graduated.

Wilmington

It was a tight race for first place in the SBAAC American Division in 2019.

Wilmington finished third at 6-3-1 behind champion Clinton-Massie 7-2-1 and runnerup Goshen 6-2-2.

This year, the Hurricane looks to break through for a league title.

“We have been impressed with the positive attitudes and work ethic of the players through a trying time,” WHS head coach Imad El-Macharrafie said. “We look forward to getting on the field once games start.”

WHS was 9-6-2 in all games. Josh Vaughan, a first-team All-SBAAC player in 2019, has graduated but plenty of talent returns.

There are nine starters among the 12 returning letterwinners on the Alumni Field pitch.

Brady Vilvens is a first-team All-SBAAC player and joins second teamers Jacob Romer and Matt Butcher in the starting lineup. Caleb Reed was given honorable mention.

Vilvens was fifth in the league with 21 goals last season while Romer added 17.

El-Macharrafie said the seniors have “stepped up and are showing great focus and leadership.” They are experienced and look to achieve their goals, he added.

WHS can contend in 2020 if “we play our style of soccer,” El-Macharrafie said.

Clinton-Massie

The Clinton-Massie cross country teams have just three returning runners from the 2019 season.

Emma Muterspaw, a first-team All-SBAAC runner, is the top returnee for Dean Richardson, who is in his 24th season as coach.

Jacob Ryan is a top newcomer after a sterling middle school career.

The Falcons lose 2019 graduates Lilly Lentine, Seth Goodall and Alex Shelton.

“We have a good group of young runners,” Richardson said. “We need to continue to work our way into shape. Also, we hope to recruit more runners once school starts.”

The boys roster includes Bryce Hensley, Travis Smith and Ryan. Muterspaw is the lone runner on the varsity girls roster.

Richardson said there are five middle school boys and seven middle school girls training with the team.

Blanchester

Tiffany Wyss is the head coach of the Blanchester High School cross country teams.

Brett Bandow (first team All-SBAAC) and Nick Musselman (second team) were sophomores last year who ran well for BHS on the boys side.

Alexis Davis was the top runner for the BHS girls in last year’s meet but she graduated in the spring.

Team members Oliver McDermott, Tyler Preston, Griffin Snarr, Emma Simpson, Tony Wilens-Mabry.

Wilmington

Wilmington runners swept top honors in 2019 at the SBAAC Cross Country Championship meet.

And top individuals on each side return for Karen Heslop, who takes over the program from Hall of Fame coach Eileen Grosse and Brad Heys.

Sophie Huffman was runnerup in the girls race while Sylena Baltazar was seventh overall.

Garrett Stoffer is back for the boys. He was third in the league race.

The boys do lose SBAAC American Division runner of the year Tyler Parks, who graduated this spring.

East Clinton

Aidan Henson won the SBAAC Cross Country Championship race last season but graduated in the spring.

Coach Bill Hrabak is the head coach.

Carah Antek, a junior now, was second team All-SBAAC last season. Zach Vest also was second team and is a junior for the boys.
HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS/BOYS GOLF

Wilmington Girls

Lilly Middleton is one of the favorites to take over the girls golf top spot in the SBAAC left vacant by the graduation of Clinton-Massie’s Gabby Woods.

The Wilmington High School junior was runnerup in the league last year and a district qualifier. She’s had a successful summer on the links and will be “a leader by example” for the Lady Hurricane, third-year head coach Pat Black said.

WHS was third in the league tournament last season with Middleton shooting an 82.

But after the talented third-year player, Black has little depth on the WHS squad. Sixth players from last year’s team graduated and another will not return, according to Black.

Letterwinners Carsyn Custis and Rachel Lowe are back for another season. Katie Murphy, a sophomore, is out for the first time. She is the sister of former WHS boys golf standout Jack Murphy.

Black said his young squad will need consistency but could contend for an SBAAC title if each player plays up to their ability.

Wilmington Boys

After Phil Gilmore’s successful run as the Wilmington High School boys golf coach, Zach Williams takes over the program.

Gilmore guided WHS to the SBAAC American Division championship last season. Led by four-time first team All-SBAAC golfer Jack Murphy, the Hurricane won back-to-back championships.

Murphy was a two-time SBAAC Player of the Year and three time district qualifier.

However, Murphy and Brady Evans, No. 2 WHS player in the league tournament, have both graduated.

Williams, who also is the head coach of the WHS girls basketball team, will have returning players Brady Leathley and Braydon Conley at the top of the roster. Both were second team All-SBAAC in 2019 and have taken leadership of the 2020 Hurricane squad, Williams said.

Seeking consistency from a young team, Williams said this squad is a laid back group with an eagerness to do well. If the young players step up and the team overall shows consistency, Williams believes WHS can contend in the American Division.

“Looking forward to navigating this season with this group of young men,” said Williams.

East Clinton Girls

The East Clinton girls golf team will be coached again in 2020 by Brian Carey.

Team members are Maggie Mathews, Gretchen Boggs, Kamille Helsel, Jordan Colom and Madison Frazier.

East Clinton Boys

Led by Gage McConahay, East Clinton won the SBAAC National Division tournament last season.

But McConahay, the National Division player of the year, has graduated.

Mike Deters return as the Astros head coach. EC will play its home matches at Snow Hill Country Club.
HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS/BOYS GOLF

The Blanchester girls golf team has three returning starters from last year’s 3-16 squad.

The Ladycats graduated Ashlin Benne, who was second team All-SBAAC in 2019 on the girls side. Her stroke average was 20th overall when she played in matches with the BHS boys team.

Girls head coach Jamey Grogg returns for his second season.

And even though the three returning players were starters in 2019, there are aspects of the game that need improvement. The coaches said “finding our touch inside 50 yards and eliminating three putts” are key to the season.

But if the team has good course management, realizes they do not need to hit driver on every hole and plays into their bags better with the clubs they feel most comfortable with, then being in contention for an SBAAC title is possible in 2020.

Blanchester Boys

Brian Miller will close out a stellar golf career at Blanchester High School this fall.

The senior has been a three-year starter and two-team All-SBAAC player for head coach Aaron Lawson, who will be assisted by Jamey Grogg. Miller was sixth overall and fourth in the National Division among SBAAC golfers in terms of stroke average at 43.6.

Talent aside, Lawson said Miller “brings a great attitude to practice every day. He is like having a coach present when I am not around. The younger guys will be able to learn a lot from him.

Logan Heitzman, a second team All-SBAAC player in 2019, graduated this past spring for BHS.

In all there are three returning starters to the team. Lawson said his squad needs to refine its short game and putting skills to improve.

“Find our touch inside 50 yards and eliminating three putts,” he said.

With Miller leading the way, the Wildcats can contend in the SBAAC National Division if they have good course management, realize they do not need to hit driver on every hole and play with the clubs they feel most comfortable with, Lawson said.
HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS/BOYS GOLF

Clinton-Massie Girls

Things won’t be quite the same in 2020 for the Clinton-Massie girls golf team. After all, three-time SBAAC Player of the Year Gabby Woods won’t be around.

Woods, who graduated, tied for fourth in the state tournament last season. The Lady Falcons won back-to-back SBAAC titles and were sectional runners-up in 2019. They qualified for the district tournament in each of Woods’ four seasons on Lebanon Road.

But coach Tim McGraw, in his fifth season at the helm, said his 2020 squad is “relaxed” and “eager to play this year.”

“Just a great group of young ladies to be around,” he said. “They know things are a little different this year but are still the same fun bunch that I enjoyed being around last year.”

Four seniors return to the lineup, led by second team All-SBAAC players in 2019 Taylor Anderson and Pearl Spurlock.

Ella McCarren is a newcomer to keep an eye on, McGraw said.

The coach knows goal titles are won around the green and said his team needs to improve its chipping and putting. “We need to be able to save strokes on and around the greens,” he added.

But a third straight league title isn’t out of the question, McGraw said, with consistent play. “We need girls to step up night in and night out,” he said.

Clinton-Massie Boys

For the first time in a number of years, the Clinton-Massie boys golf program will have a junior varsity team, coach Phil Larrick said.

With 11 players on the roster, the Falcons will be able to field two full teams.

Ethan Johnson and Dakota Gasaway, both All-SBAAC second teamers in 2019, provide a solid 1-2 punch at the top of the varsity squad, Larrick said.

“Their overall effort and time spent on the course has clearly made them the leaders of the team,” the veteran coach said.

In all, four starters and five letterwinners return for the Falcons, who were 21-11 last season and third in the American Division tournament in 2019.

Larrick was the middle coach 18 years and is now in his third season as the varsity coach. He will be assisted by Clayton Morgan.

Gabby Woods, who had the lowest scoring average on the team, and Jonathan Rumbarger do not return for Larrick. But five freshmen, including newcomer of note Cameron Morgan, and a solid eighth grade class, give the Falcons hope for the future.

In 2020, though, Larrick said short game improvement and course management can lead to contention if a couple players step up behind Gasaway and Johnson. The roster includes senior Clay Carroll, senior Sam Glass, senior Michael Moritz, sophomore George Chowning, freshman Logan Miller, freshman Ethan Robinett, freshman Samuel Janis and freshman Quinton Smith.
HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS TENNIS

Clinton-Massie
Julie Kirby takes over the Clinton-Massie girls tennis program, following Lynn Deatherage’s retirement after six successful season on Lebanon Road.
Kirby inherits a team coming off a great season but loses five starters.
The Lady Falcons were 15-2 in 2019 and finished second to Wilmington in the league standings.
Gone are graduates and first team All-SBAAC players Nina Lazic (first singles), Kari Cragwall and Liza Duncan (first doubles), Paige Wood (second doubles) and Raelee Schulz (second singles).
Elizabeth Mason is the lone returning regular player from 2019. She was second team All-SBAAC at third singles. Mason and Vanessa Asher have taken leadership of the team, Kirby said.
Given that tennis is an individual sport, Kirby said her inexperienced team has come together to support one another.
“Where we need to improve is experience,” she said. “I love this team’s spirit. They are very optimistic about what is to come.”

Blanchester
The Blanchester girls tennis team show four returning first team All-SBAAC players on its roster.
Head coach Matt Sexton, in his 15th season with the program at BHS, is looking to make it back-to-back league championships and 11 titles in the last 13 seasons.
The Ladycats were 7-1 in the league last year and earned National Division top honors.
Sexton has won 80 of 115 SBAAC National Division matches with Blanchester. He is assisted by Michael Sexton.
Six starters return so BHS should be the prime contender for league hardware. Kayla Allen, a two-time first team All-SBAAC player and team captain, has graduated and leaves a big hole to fill at first singles.
“We need experience,” said Sexton. “We will have a new first singles player and that is a transition. We also will have players at doubles likely in their first or second seasons playing tennis. At this point, we just need competition.”
Maddy Coyle, Annie Trovillo and Grace Irwin are returning first teamers and have taken a leadership role on the squad this season, Sexton said.
Taylor Bradley is the other first-team returning player.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS TENNIS

Wilmington

An undefeated SBAAC American Division season will be difficult to match in 2020 for the Wilmington High School tennis team.

“If we can keep everyone healthy, stay focused on the fundamentals and are able to adjust well to the many changes we face, we can be competitive,” ninth-year WHS coach Doug Cooper said. “So far we are off to a very good start, in part because of the rich legacy of positivity and competitiveness given to us by last year’s seniors.”

WHS was 15-5 overall and 10-0 in the American last season. The title is the third in Cooper’s tenure, and second straight in the SBAAC. Keith Gilbert is the reserve coach and Steve Reed is a program assistant.

There are four returning starters, led by Claire Burns who was the SBAAC player of the year in 2019. Jenna Taylor and Emilee Pham were first team All-SBAAC and Gracie Conger was second team.

Cooper said Emma Lewis and Chandni Sharma are newcomers to note in 2020. The top losses from a year ago are Allie Kees (first team all-league and second in career wins at WHS), Josie Nichols (first team), Annie Osborn and Rachel Barker.

Pham is the leader of the team, Cooper said, noting her athleticism, academic accomplishments, competitive drive, and living example of personal integrity. “I like the extremely positive attitude and sense of togetherness this team exhibits every time we’re together,” Cooper said. “Even throughout two-a-days they continue to exude positivity and a willingness to complete and improve. The players constantly pick each other up and look after each other.”

East Clinton

Doug Stehlin has just one player returning from last year’s squad, Holly Bernard.

Six of the seven players from 2019 have graduated, so Stehlin will continue to recruit talent for the 2020 season.

“We have picked up two new players and continue trying to get more,” he said. “Our team is going to be young and inexperienced but hopefully they will learn how to play tennis and like it enough to come back next year and continue to get better.”

Myah Anteck and Emmy Chambliss are the newcomers to note, Stehlin said.

Newcomers to note are Rianna Mueller, Leah Boege- man, Abbey Irwin and Gracie Kaehler.

Sexton said he loves the work ethic of his squad, which is as deep in singles players as it has been in a long time, he added.

“I’m excited to see who steps up,” he said. “This is also going to be a year where people are going to get opportunities, whether it is because of illness or whatever. As long as we stay healthy, which is a concern this year more than most, I think we should have a lot of success.
